U-BOATS ATTACKED RUSSIAN WIRELESS STATION

Reported That Russian War Vessels for the Allies Came Back at Germany, Sinking Two Submarines—The German Merchant Submarine Bremen Is Said to be Enroute to German East Africa and Never Intended to Come to the United States at all—A New Greek Cabinet Has Been Formed Whis Is Said to be Colorless—No Important Changes Reported on any of the Battle Fronts.

Christiania, Oct. 10.—A Russian torpedo boat yesterday sank two German submarines after the submarines had attacked the Russian wireless station at Sepnolek, on the Murman coast, according to information from Petrograd. Several persons were killed by the submarine gunfire.

The Bremen Fooled Them. London, Oct. 10.—An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen quotes a Bergen newspaper as saying the German submarine Bremen is enroute to German East Africa and never intended to go to the United States.

New Greek Cabinet. London, Oct. 10.—Telegraphing from Athens yesterday Reuter's correspondent says Prof. Lambros has succeeded in forming a cabinet which will be sworn in today. The correspondent says it is the most colorless cabinet Greece has ever had.

War Summary. London, Oct. 10.—Increased activities on the battle front south of the Somme were reported by the French war office today, which says spirited artillery fighting occupied last night in Denicourt in the Lihous sector.

The Bulgarian forces which are opposing the British troops in the region to the east of the Struma, in Greek Macedonia, returned to the hills northwest of Serz, says the British official statement issued today. The British occupied the towns of Kalandra and Homondos.

Continuing the advance in Transylvania, the Austro-German forces under General Von Falkenhayn captured the passes in the Harghita and Carolo mountains on both sides of Kronstadt. The statement adds the central powers are pressing the Rumanians, who lost twenty-five cannon in this sector in the course of the last three days. This information was contained in the Berlin official statement today.

We do not know how the war can be ended unless Germany lends some of her generals to her antagonists.—Florida Times-Union.

It is easy to fool a man who has no faith in human nature.

UNITED STATES TO TURN ALLIES DOWN

Will Not Deny Harbors to Submarines If No Violation of America's Neutrality.

(By Associated Press.) Washington, Oct. 10.—The United States will refuse to accept the contention of the entente allies urging that neutrals deny the use of their harbors to all submarines, whether merchantmen or warships. Counsellor Polk of the state department made his announcement today.

CHANGE OF VENUE ASKED FOR WATSON

Nothing Has Developed in the Watson Case at Waco—Application Change of Venue Is Made.

(By Associated Press.) Waco, Tex., Oct. 10.—Beyond the hearing of evidence on application for a change of venue nothing of interest developed at the morning hearing of the T. R. Watson murder charge. The answer by the State to the application consisted of a general denial of all allegations made by the defense. The hearing of testimony on the change of venue may occupy all day tomorrow.

How difficult it is for a man to get down to hard labor after nursing a political job for a few years.

It strikes us-- that just about now you may be in need of something in our line. And no matter what it is, if it's good you'll find it among our

GROCERIES

Stop in and look around anyway. Our display is so complete and varied you will probably see something you ought to have.

BROOKLYN TURNS TABLES ON BOSTON

Nationals Come Back in Third Game of World's Series and Take Game by 4 to 3 Score.

(By Associated Press.) Ebbetts' Field, Brooklyn, Oct. 10.—The tables were turned in the world's series this afternoon when Brooklyn took the third game of the series by the score of 4 to 3. Coombs, pitching for Brooklyn, was relieved in the seventh inning by Pfeffer when the score was tied, 3 and 3. Brooklyn made the winning run in the ninth inning.

The weather today was clear and cool. A brisk northwest wind sent many fans to Ebbetts' Field wearing overcoats.

The score by innings:

	Boston	Brooklyn
First	0	0
Second	0	0
Third	0	0
Fourth	0	1
Fifth	0	2
Sixth	2	0
Seventh	1	0
Eighth	0	0
Ninth	0	1
Total runs	3	4

Batteries—Boston, Mays and Thomas; Brooklyn, Coombs and Smith. Pfeffer relieved Coombs in the seventh.

ALL IN READINESS FOR TEXAS SYNOD

Prominent Ministers and Church Workers Gather for Annual Meeting of Synod.

Every train arriving in the city today has been filled with Presbyterian ministers and prominent church laymen from all parts of Texas. The opening of the annual meeting of the Presbyterian Synod of Texas will be tonight at the First Presbyterian church in this city. Everything is in readiness and Pastor Storey says that things have worked without a hitch and a great meeting is looked forward to.

The opening tonight will be at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. Thomas Stone Clyde, D. D., president of Austin College, Sherman, will deliver the opening sermon, after which the moderator for the meeting will be selected and the clerks will be named.

The meeting will then adjourn until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, when the real work of the Synod will be taken up.

Everyone has an invitation to attend all of these meetings and to miss the address of Dr. Clyde tonight will be a great loss, as he is one of the foremost ministers and educators in Texas.
